LADIES'

Hand-Turned Shoes,

A GREAT SACRIFICE

We have a lot of hand-turned shoes in plain toes, made by C. P. Ford & Co., of Rochester, N. Y., known the country over as one of the best firms in shoe manufacturing for ladies. These shoes retail regular at $3.50 and $4 and are worth the money. Every shoe dealer will tell you so.

We have altogether too many of these shoes and must sell them out to reduce stock. We have now in stock about five or six hundred pairs and most of them are in narrow widths. We want to sell these shoes out and they must go. We will sell them for little money. We intend to offer them until the stock has been sufficiently reduced, at $2.25 per pair, and you can't match this bargain anywhere in the country. Get as many of them as you want—get them at once—no restriction on the number of pairs you buy.

THE BAPTIST MINISTERS.

Business of the Association at the Church—Officers Elected.

The Women's Missionary Society connected with the Springfield Baptist Association having completed their business, the ministers came to the front this morning and the pastoral conference was held. The services opened at 8:30 at the First Baptist church with a service of "Prayer for blessing on the work of the Association," in charge of Deacon Thomas Hays, of the Baptist church of this city.

The morning lesson was the third chapter of Ephesians, the theme being Paul, the Apostle. The service consisted in song, testimony and prayer, and was full of spirit and interest.

At 9 o'clock the Pastors' Conference opened with an address by Rev. W. W. Williams, of Shelbyville, who spoke on "How are Our Churches Benefited by the Association?"

Rev. B. W. Boyer was down on the program next for an address on "How can we make our meetings more helpful," but in his absence, the question was taken up in informal discussion by the pastors present.

Following a five-minute recess, the report of the committee on program was read and approved. The Moderator then appointed Lee T. Hays, of Deatur, Miss Susan Jones of Chicago, Mrs. Joseph Rogers of Springfield, as the committee on enrollment; and Rev. W. W. Williams of Shelbyville, Rev. Thiele of Pease, and Mrs. J. H. Kittamiller of Jacksonville, to constitute the committee on nominations. After the reading of the by-laws of the association and the Deatur church letter, the pastor's conference closed and the morning session of the association formally opened with singing.

"At the Cross," Rev. J. J. McKiff, of Stoneington, read the scripture lesson from Philippians, 1st chapter, and Rev. Hays, of Clinton, offered prayer. After the singing of "More Love to Thee," Rev. Dr. E. B. Rogers, of Springfield, on Rogers' sermon.

Dr. Rogers took for his text Philippians 1: 21: "For me to live is Christ." Dr. Rogers spoke for over forty minutes and held the closest attention of his hearers throughout. He has a pleasant and finely trained voice, and a delivery which makes the true pulpit orator. He handles his theme in a manner entirely worthy of it, and presented the Christian life in a light of practicality which could not but be convincing. Lack of space, however, forbids more than this passing notice of it.

Following the sermon the report of the committee on nominations was read and approved. The committee reported J. L. O'Connor, of Springfield, for moderator, Rev. E. S. Walker, of Springfield, clerk, Dr. L. H. Clark, Deatur, treasurer, and F. W. Stockbridge, of Pease, trustee. On motion the report of the committee was approved and the clerk instructed to cast the ballot of the association for the officers named. After the casting of several church letters the session adjourned to meet this afternoon.

Delivered the preliminary sermon.

Dr. Dwight Spencer D. D., of Philadelphia, will deliver the address to-night at the church.

THE WOMAN'S MEETING.

The business of the Women's Missionary Society of the Baptist association was disposed of yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. O. E. Torrey, the president, delivered the address of welcome after Miss Susan Jones, of Jacksonville, had conducted the devotional exercises. Mrs. Jones showed $402 contributed for the work, and an increase in membership at Springfield, Deatur, Jacksonville, Oregon, Pease, Shelbyville, Stoneington and other points. Mrs. Donna Buckingham gave an interesting recitation.

These officers were elected: President, Mrs. O. E. Torrey; vice-president, Mrs. Jennie Rogers, of Springfield; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Emma Kittamiller, of Taylorville.

"What Mean These Times?" was the caption of a paper written by Mrs. L. M. O'Leary, of Springfield, and read by Mrs. Rogers. Miss Marie Taylor, of Taylorville, gave an address on "The Responsibility of Not Doing."

At the evening meeting preliminary exercises were participated in by Miss Maria Ward, of Deatur, Mrs. Torrey and Miss Rosenberg.

Miss Jones, of the Baptist Mission Training School at Chicago, spoke on "How to Win Them." She addressed herself mainly to the need of earnest work among the negroes and Indians, and also among the Mexicans and Morosians. The address was heard by a large audience.

W. O. T. U. Meeting.

More delegates arrived to-day to the district W. O. T. U. convention in session in Library Block, among them Mrs. C. B. DUBOIS, of Chicago, the National corresponding secretary.

DEATHS.

Clinton—Mrs. Mary Coates, Mrs. Wardell, Mrs. R. H. Herrington.

Lillian—Mrs. Sarah Taylor, Mrs. Sophia Joyce.

Besides the delegates there are many visitors from Deatur and other points.

At the meeting yesterday afternoon a remark on the work was made by Mrs. E. R. Herrington of Lincoln, Miss Lida Edward of Deatur, Mrs. Meloth of Deatur, Mrs. E. D. Whitworth of Bloomington, Mrs. G. H. Reed of Bloomington, and Miss Mary A. Mahon. The Y meeting at night in the Congregational church was largely attended. Miss Maude Orr, of Bloomington, and Mrs. Reed participated in the devotional exercises, and J. E. Patterson and wife led the singing. The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Meloth, Miss Lida Edward, Mrs. E. D. Whitworth, Mrs. Reed, and Miss Maude Orr. Mrs. Reed responded, and Miss Maude Orr gave a vocal solo which was received with great pleasure. The address of the evening was by Mrs. Mahon, of Deatur, who spoke on the influence of young women

In temperance work. Nettie Pritchett, Melissa Jones and Belle McCall gave a vocal solo, and Rev. W. T. Evans pronounced the benediction.

At the convention to-day a memorial service was conducted by Mrs. Emma Lewis and Miss Emma Lewis and Mrs. S. F. Wilson. Various reports were read and discussed.

The membership in the district is 1194. The receipts have been $449.90, and the expenditures $1076.70. The deficit is $626.80. The previous year's deficit was $75.00.

Miss O'Leary was re-elected president, receiving 38 out of 49 votes cast. This evening at the Congregational Church Miss Dull will deliver an address.

A CRAZY MAN.

Big Score on the Chicago Board of Trade To-day.

(SPECIAL TO THE REPUBLICAN.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—To-day a crazy or drunken man appeared in the south gallery of the Board of Trade about 12:30 p. m., and emptied a revolver at the brokers on the floor. A. M. Bennett, the secretary of the Board of Trade, was shot in the throat. No one else was wounded, though six shots were fired.

ANOTHER HORROR.

(SPECIAL TO THE REPUBLICAN.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—The west-bound express train, No. 5, on the Grand Trunk Road, was run into by a west-bound Erie express at Bellevue, Mich., early this morning. A special car attached to the train was demolished. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newland, of Detroit, were killed. Howard McDonald, cashier of the Grand Trunk, was seriously and his wife probably fatally injured. The porter and cook of the car were seriously hurt, and the fireman of the Erie train badly scalded.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT.

Declaration No Good in the Diligent Damage Case.

Business is being disposed of rapidly in the circuit court by Judge Vall.

The $20,000 DAMAGE CASE.

Judge Vall this forenoon gave his decision on the demurrer entered by the defendants to the declaration in the $20,000 damage case of Edwin Dillehant against the City of Deatur.

Mr. Dillehant was a fireman in the employ of the city, and was shockingly injured by driving a horse wagon past a burning barn through an alley. City Attorney Lee and W. O. Johns for the city argued successfully that the manure pile in the alley at the barn, the alleged cause of the accident, was not the approximate cause of the injury to Dillehant, and further, that one department of the city government is not responsible for the negligence of another department. The court held that the points made by Attorney Lee and Johns were good, and the demurrer was sustained. The plaintiff will have to come into court with a new or amended declaration.
